New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners (NJAWBO, www.njawbo.org) is the largest statewide women business owners' organization in the United States. Its primary objective is to support and encourage business ownership by women. For over 28 years, NJAWBO has helped women achieve their business visions by providing them with the tools to develop and grow their enterprises. As of today, NJAWBO has grown to almost a thousand members, organized into twelve chapters and three regional groupings, with members serving as officers at the chapter, regional and state levels. Together, they are a dynamic and powerful group of women business owners. "We have a diverse pool of expertise to support and grow any major corporation," Ms. Strawn stated. "Retain. Recruit. Win-win Growth." is Ms. Strawn's Presidential platform theme.
